

Administrative Office of Illinois Courts Language Assistance Services by County

The map below shows the courts that are equipped to provide in-person interpreting services in various capacities. According to information presented in each circuit's Language Access Plan, 9 counties have staff interpreters () employed by the circuit court, 18 counties have bilingual staff (), and 2 counties have bilingual volunteers (). Furthermore, according to the 2015 data on interpreter usage, 22 judicial circuits provided interpreters in civil cases ().

