- b. Registered users shall keep the required registration information current (i.e. email address, phone number, etc.).
- c. Any document or record filed electronically by a registered user through an authorized provider and containing a facsimile or typographical signature shall be deemed to have been signed pursuant to these Standards and to satisfy Supreme Court Rules and statutes regarding original signatures on court documents and records.

3. Preparation of the Record on Appeal

a. General Provisions

- i. To the extent practicable, all documents shall be in Portable Document Format (PDF) with a minimum resolution of 300 Dots per Inch (DPI) and maximum of 600 DPI, scanned in black and white mode, with black text on white background, and text searchable. When possible, documents must be converted to PDF directly from the program creating the document, rather than from a scanned image of a paper document.
- ii. Each section of the Record on Appeal shall be assembled in volumes of no more than 150 MB. Every effort should be made to limit the number of volumes in each section to support general usability and download practices.
- iii. Any external material hyperlinked in any document within the Record on Appeal is not considered part of the document or the Record on Appeal.
- iv. All documents must be free of viruses or other processes potentially harmful to the recipient and must be secure from alteration, destruction, or corruption. Documents shall not contain any embedded files or code, videos, scripts, tracking tags, or any type of executable file or code.
- v. The Table of Contents for each section shall contain hyperlinks to the items within the section to facilitate navigation and location of specific documents within the record. Each hyperlink shall be connected to the title/description of the document or the name of the individual section.
- vi. Any Certification of Record or Table of Contents shall display the circuit court/administrative agency and reviewing court case numbers and the name of the trial judge/administrative hearing officer in the case caption.

b. Common Law Record Section

- i. A Certification of Record shall be included as Page 1 of the Common Law Record Section. It shall state that the Record on Appeal has been prepared and certified in the form required for transmission to the reviewing court. (See Appendix 1 Sample)

- c. Report of Proceedings Section
- i. A Table of Contents shall be included as Page 1 of the Report of Proceedings Section.
 - ii. The Table of Contents shall identify the date of each proceeding and the type of each proceeding, which shall match as closely as possible the type provided on the report of proceedings itself under Supreme Court Rule 323(b). (See Appendix 3 Sample)

Such exhibits shall be listed in the Exhibits Section Table of Contents. For each such exhibit, a page shall be inserted into the Exhibits Section in sequential order, identifying the exhibit (e.g. “Defendant’s Exhibit #1 – Flash Drive – sent by mail/delivered to the reviewing court”).
