

Rule 113      Jurisdictional statements in postdissolution appeals

In any appeal from the final order disposing of any petition or motion filed in a postdissolution proceeding, the appellant's jurisdictional statement pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 341(h)(4)(ii) shall specify that the Court has jurisdiction because (1) the trial court has jurisdiction of no other postdissolution matters or (2) although the trial court has jurisdiction of other postdissolution matters, the trial court entered a finding under Supreme Court Rule 304(a) as to the order appealed. If neither of those conditions applies, the appellant shall acknowledge same and specify how the Court nevertheless has jurisdiction. For purposes of this Local Rule, a "postdissolution proceeding" is a dissolution case in which a judgment of dissolution has been entered but is not the order appealed. The appellant's compliance with this Local Rule does not necessarily establish that the Court has jurisdiction.
