

10. Disposition of Cases

Where no appellee brief is timely filed, a case will be considered ready for submission to the Appellate Court fourteen (14) days after the day the brief is due to be filed, unless a timely motion for extension of time to file the brief is filed. If a timely motion for extension of time is filed, but no brief is subsequently timely filed, the case will be considered ready for submission to the Appellate Court on the due date determined by the resolution of the motion(s) for extension.

All other cases will be considered ready for disposition upon the timely filing of the appellant reply brief ( or cross-reply brief). Where no reply brief ( or cross-reply brief) is timely filed, a case will be considered ready for disposition on the day the reply brief ( or cross-reply brief) is due to be filed, unless a timely motion for extension is filed.

If a timely motion for extension is filed but no reply brief ( or cross-reply brief) is subsequently timely filed, the case will be considered ready for disposition as of the due date determined by the resolution of the motion(s) for extension. See last page of this document for appeal time schedule.
